E. M. Sanchez of Havana, Cuba, is in the city on a visit to his uncle, Col. E. C. F. Sanchez. Mr. Sanchez is now engaged in the real estate business in Havana.

J. A. J. Strickland of Hague was in Gainesville yesterday, having come with a load of produce which found ready sale in the local market, principally choice cane.

Building a passenger depot in your backyard may be a good ad.—but the ever-increasing number of meals served to dinner train guests speaks volumes for the Brown House.

J. D. Roberts, justice of the peace for the Rochelle district, was visiting in Gainesville yesterday. He states that business in his line is rather quiet, the negroes again being on their good behavior.

C. V. McQueen, one of the prominent citizens of Newberry, was a visitor to the city yesterday. He has been suffering greatly with a lame foot, but is now enabled to get about and attend to his business affairs.

I. F. Lamb of Worthington Springs was in the city yesterday en route to Starke, where he went on business. He is thoroughly aroused as to the future of Worthington Springs, and to show his faith in the place he has just closed a deal of $5,000 for real estate there.

Don't waste your money buying plasters when you can get a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment for twenty-five cents. A piece of flannel dampened with this liniment is superior to any plaster for lame back, pains in the side and chest, and much cheaper. Sold by all druggists.

I am now bucking the trust prices on bananas, apples and grapes, and will sell you the best bananas at 10 cents dozen; nice apples at 40 cents peck, or grapes at 20 cents basket. Stick to me and you will not have to pay 30 cents per dozen for your bananas in the future. N. Francisco.

"Can be depended upon" is an expression we all like to hear, and when it is used in connection with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, it means that it never fails to cure diarrhoea, dysentery or bowel complaints. It is pleasant to take and equally valuable for children and adults. Sold by all druggists.

G. E. Whetstone of Fort White is among the visitors to the city. For quite a while he was a resident of Gainesville, having been engaged in business here.

Miss Hattie Dennis, who has been absent for the past several weeks visiting various points of interest, has returned home to the delight of her numerous friends.

J. K. McDonald, National Bank Examiner of Washington, D. C., arrived in the city yesterday and will be here for the next few days on his regular tour of inspection.

The barbershop of L. E. Dean, on East Union street, is being materially improved by the application of paint. When completed it will be one of the neatest and cleanest shops to be found in the city.

Dr. Abernethy, the great English physician, said, "Watch your kidneys. When they are affected, life is in danger." Foley's Kidney Remedy makes healthy kidneys, corrects urinary irregularities, and tones up the whole system. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Martin McHugh, cement contractor of Palatka, arrived in the city Monday night. He has the contract for the cement work at the new Seaboard depot, and came over to finish same. Mr. McHugh formerly resided here, and his many friends will be glad to meet him again.

J. W. Bishop of Alachua was a visitor to Gainesville yesterday. He is a member of the Bishop-Harrison Company of that town and states that it seems almost impossible for them to catch up with the thieves in that place. They have on several occasions entered his firm's store.

Lost—Ladies' solid gold hunting case, "O"-size Waltham-movement watch, with small scratched number in back case X 7179; on fob was a Randolph-Macon pin and half-dollar charm. May have been lost on Gainesville-Rochelle-Micanopy road. Reward for return of same to this office.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is today the best known medicine in use for the relief and cure of bowel complaints. It cures griping, diarrhoea, dysentery, and should be taken at the first unnatural looseness of the bowels. It is equally valuable for children and adults. It always cures. Sold by all druggists.

I have always endeavored to sell you choice fruit at the closest living prices, and am bucking the trust. Remember my special prices on apples at 40 cents peck, 20 cents for half peck; grapes, 20 cents basket, and bananas 10 cents dozen. Buy from the original price-cutter, be happy and know that you will assist in keeping the prices down. N. Francisco, the Banana Man.

Has Received Handsome Badge.

Dr. F. Prescott Bullock, adjutant general of the Department of Florida, G. A. R., has received one of the hand-somest badges ever gotten out by any organization, and which was presented to all of the delegates attending the National Encampment which convened at Omaha. While The Doctor did not attend, he was remembered with one of these expensive and handsome souvenirs and it is highly appreciated as one of the finest pieces of work of its kind ever issued.

Receiving Coat of Paint.

The handsome and commodious residence of Col. H. F. Dutton, on the corner of Pleasant and Liberty streets, is being greatly improved by an additional coat of paint, which makes the building present a new appearance. There are many more such places in Gainesville that could be made attractive by following this example.

To the Gainesville Public: For the past two years I have worked most night and day in an effort to break up the trust prices in Gainesville on bananas and other fruits, and the citizens well know how well I have succeeded by the manner in which I have been enabled to dispose of the goods. I am now being "bucked" by the trust, but will continue to sell you good choice bananas for 10 cents dozen, or 50, 60 and 75 cents the bunch, and you will show your friendship by sticking to the Francisco wagons and stores for your purchases. For a special to my friends and customers I will sell you choice grapes for only 20 cents per basket, consisting of three varieties, take your choice. N. Francisco, the Fruit Man and Trust Breaker.

Has Arrived in City.

H. L. Edwards, accompanied by his son, have arrived in the city for the purpose of making their future home here to take advantage of the excellent school facilities. Mr. Edwards has purchased the Baird property, which was the old Roux house on East Union street, and expects to move his family here from Gadsden county about the first of next month.

Many people delude themselves by saying "It will wear away," when they notice symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble. This is a mistake. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy, and stop the drain on the vitality. It cures backache, rheumatism, kidney and bladder trouble, and makes every trace of pain, weakness, and urinary trouble disappear. J. W. McCollum Co.
